

You can't beat Waikanae on a sunny day...

Hi everyone,

Welcome to the first WBA newsletter of 2025.

While it may have been fairly quiet on the retail front with everyone away for the holidays, a lot has been going on in and around our shopping centre. Read on for some exciting news and updates!

Firstly we'd like to thank the team at House of Travel Kāpiti for the Elf on the Shelf Scavenger Hunt which was a great initiative and well supported by a significant number of our Mahara Place and Main Road Stores. 38 children entered their completed forms and had a great time hunting around the shops during the Christmas Market.

If anyone has an initiative that they would like to discuss or organise themselves, we really welcome this. There is a lot going on behind the scenes ensuring your interests are being represented so any support you can lend for promotional activity is really appreciated.

We are planning our first business get together in the coming weeks and look forward to reconnecting with you all. In the meantime, here's the latest news:

Waikanae Pop-Up Village - KCDC Supplied Update:

Waikanae Pop-Up Moving Forward

The Waikanae Pop-Up is taking shape, with containers now on-site as we move into the next phase of the project.

We're inviting expressions of interest from those keen to lease a pop-up space—whether you're starting out and looking to test the market or an existing business wanting to expand. Our goal is to create a vibrant hub that complements the offerings around Mahara Place and Main Road.

Also, keep an eye out for an upcoming public art project that will involve and celebrate our community.

If you're interested in being part of this space, we'd love to hear from you!

Further details will be shared soon. Please visit the Waikanae Pop-Up project page on the KCDC website: Waikanae Pop-Up - Kāpiti Coast District Council or email economic.development@kapiticoast.govt.nz
